A home as unique as you are

From downtown lofts to boulevard bungalows to Victorian mansions overlooking the Mississippi River—in Greater Dubuque your home can easily fit your personality and your budget. Our low cost of living makes it easier to afford the kind of life you’ve been saving to live. Meet your goals faster—buy a home, travel more, and save for your future. Our neighborhoods don’t make you choose between affordability or safety. Walk to school or work, go for a run or bike ride, and spend time relaxing in your own backyard.
The Greater Dubuque community is making strides as a leader in sustainability and connectivity. We're committed to renovating our historic neighborhoods, maintaining their innate charm while upgrading spaces for homes and workplaces. Access to local, natural, and organic food is easy through our farmers markets, community gardens, CSAs, and grocers. We’re also home to Alliant Energy’s largest solar array in the state—a 26-acre site capable of powering over 850 homes. At our Water and Resource Recovery Center, excess emissions are captured and cycled into a renewable biogas system, keeping our air cleaner and reducing our carbon footprint.

The Greater Dubuque area is also keeping pace with the speed of technology. Our city government has prioritized working with public and private partners to ensure our residents have access to broadband in order to stay connected.

Dubuque is a viable, livable, equitable community driving economic prosperity, environmental integrity, and cultural vibrancy. Through small and large efforts, we’re committed to leaving a smart, sustainable legacy for future generations that our residents can be proud of.
We’re called the Masterpiece on the Mississippi for a reason—the river carved our landscape into a work of art. Get outdoors and experience it all—camp along the water’s edge, hike the bluffs at Mines of Spain, paddle the backwaters, practice yoga at Eagle Point Park, explore the Dubuque Arboretum and Botanical Gardens, or bicycle the scenic Heritage Trail.
The Greater Dubuque area is a non-stop arts and culture community. Experience year-round live music and festivals, take classes at the Dubuque Museum of Art, enjoy theater productions and the Dubuque Symphony Orchestra, visit the National Mississippi River Museum and Aquarium, or take in the Julien Dubuque International Film Festival!

Get involved in the community and be a part of our bigger picture. There are many ways to make an impact—be a mentor, serve on a board, volunteer for a local nonprofit, support advocacy, network with other professionals, or join a city commission—all while sharing your unique talents and abilities.
A world-class education

From preschool to advanced degrees, our education system prepares the next generation of leaders. Our public and private schools are committed to providing pathways for students to unlock their potential and be equipped for the future.

Dubuque’s strong education system has received national recognition. In 2017, Dubuque received an All-America City Award for efforts in improving early literacy. Our high school students also achieve higher scores on the ACT, on average, than those at the state and national levels.

The Greater Dubuque area is home to 11 institutions of higher learning. They provide world-class education to students from around the globe, across a wide variety of disciplines and trades. Our college campuses also serve as centers for the arts, athletics, and cultural events, enriching the community.

Regardless of the path our students choose to follow, they are well prepared to achieve their goals and be successful.

Distinctively Dubuque

Distinctively Dubuque is a five-night program hosted by high-energy presenters with in-depth knowledge of the Greater Dubuque area. This program is designed for individuals who are new to the Greater Dubuque region within the last two years. Due to the generosity of our sponsors (City of Dubuque, Q Casino/Dubuque Racing Association, and Dubuque County Board of Supervisors), Distinctively Dubuque is offered free of charge. This interactive program offers opportunities to meet new people and experience local food; learn about arts, culture, and recreation opportunities; have fun while exploring the city; participate in networking activities with community leaders and residents; and discover traditions that make Dubuque unique.
